

To Whom It May Concern:

Leave NJ's Do Not Call alone!

I will not pontificate on how the FCC's time, authority, and federal funds could be put to better use - I'll leave that to the armchair politicians otherwise known as news anchors - although I'm sure I could come up with about 20 ways in as many minutes. Isn't time at least one government agency actually stood up for John & Jane Q Public?